LIVE COMMUNITY EVENTS ENTRY PROCESS

1. TEAM EVENT

The entry process as outlined at the start of this document shall apply to all Teams wishing to enter any one of the five Last Man Standing events. The Team Captain of each respective Team is responsible for completing the online process and facilitating payment. Thereafter the Team Captain is responsible for linking his/her teammates' Last Man Standing Fitness App account profiles to the purchased Team entry (this should include all participating team members). The Team Captain will assume full administrative responsibilities for the Team, including but not limited to ensuring that all team members' details as per their Last Man Standing Fitness App profile are correct, reading, acknowledging and thereafter distribution and dissemination of all important event information as communicated by the event organisers as well as onsite management of team members at event days.

A Team is defined as four athletes: two men and two women, who compete together at any Last Man Standing event. Once a Team achieves a podium finish at any qualifying event they will receive an invitation to compete at Event 5: Last Man Standing Sun City, and may submit up to two alternative athletes (one male and one female) who will form part of the full Last Man Standing Sun City Team Roster. These alternates can be substituted should one of the Team's members need to withdraw prior to arriving at check-in for Last Man Standing Sun City. Teams will have five working days after receiving their invitation to declare their Last Man Standing Sun City Team Roster. The Last Man Standing Sun City Team Roster will be frozen after 72 hours. When a Team fails to provide two alternative athletes (one male and one female) to their Team Roster, the Team Roster will be frozen with only the original four athletes' names that competed and qualified for Last Man Standing Sun City.

A Last Man Standing Sun City Team Roster will consist of six members: the four athletes who competed at the qualifying event in the original Team, plus two alternates (one male and one female). Once the names of the six members of the Team Roster have been provided to the Last Man Standing staff, the Team may select only from among those six members to fill a Team at Last Man Standing Sun City. If an athlete is listed on a Last Man Standing Sun City Team Roster, that athlete is not eligible to compete on another Team or as an Individual at Last Man Standing Sun City.

Once an athlete is listed on a Last Man Standing Sun City Team Roster and he/she competes on a different Team prior to Last Man Standing Sun City, the athlete's new Team will not be eligible to receive an invitation to Last Man Standing Sun City. If a member of a Team also earns a qualifying spot as an Individual athlete and elects to compete as an Individual at Last Man Standing Sun City, the Team must use its alternate to fill the remaining Team spot. If, for any reason, the Team cannot field two male and two female athletes at the time of check-in, the Team will not be permitted to compete at Last Man Standing Sun City. Should an invited Team choose to disband after accepting its invitation to compete, Last Man Standing reserves the right to pass the invitation to the next eligible Team in line. Last Man Standing reserves the right to pass an invitation for Last Man Standing Sun City to the next eligible Team in line if one of the podiumed teams have already received an invitation at another qualifying event. If any of the four team members who earned an invitation to Last Man Standing Sun City from a qualifying event violates Last Man Standing's Drug Policy, the invitation will be passed to the next eligible Team.

To complete the on-site check-in, the Team Captain must provide proof of identity, with a valid and generally accepted form of identification, such as an ID Document, Driver's License or passport to confirm his credentials as the Team Captain. The Team Captain should also provide an indemnity form, signed by all four teammates in order to complete the check-in process. This indemnity form can be downloaded from the website at www.lms360.net. A limited amount of forms will be available on-site for completion for those who could not bring their own copy.

Should a Team Captain not be available to complete the on-site check in process, written communication signed by the Team Captain must be given to another teammate, nominating him/her to complete the check-in process on his/her behalf and stating whom will assume the role of interim Team Captain.

The individual should also provide a signed indemnity form in-order to complete the check-on process. This indemnity form can be downloaded from the website at www.lms360.net. A limited amount of forms will be available on-site for completion. Should an individual not be available to complete the on-site check in process, written communication signed by the individual must be given to a person, nominating him/her to complete the check-in process on his/her behalf.

ONSITE ATHLETE BRIEFING

Individual athletes and Teams will be briefed regarding the event program and WOD's during the onsite briefing session. These briefings will take place on Friday (1st day of the competition) at a time communicated by the event organisers prior to the commencement of the event, unless otherwise stipulated by the event organisers. Period briefings may also take place during the event days should the organisers deem it necessary.

It is the responsibility of each competing Individual athlete and Team to attend all workout briefings and all events on the competition schedule. Individual athletes or Teams who are late to and/or miss an athlete briefing will lose the right to appeal decisions made during the competition days.

Delivery of the event format, including movement standards and required range of motion, to all participating athletes will occur during daily Individual athlete and Team briefings prior to competition for all specified events. Briefings will typically be delivered by the Head Judge or a designee of the on-site Director, with or without visual demonstration. There will be an opportunity for athletes to ask questions during the on-site briefings.

Judges will confirm scores and enforce movement standards for each workout an Individual athlete or Team performs. Judges will attend Individual athlete and Team briefings as well as their own briefings to prepare for each event. Head Judges and on-site Directors have the authority to stop or suspend an athlete at any point during the competition if he/she feels the athlete is at risk of serious injury to himself/herself or others. Judges are instructed not to touch competition equipment or move equipment during a workout unless the equipment will interfere with another athlete's performance or if there are legitimate safety concerns.

Non-compliance with a Judge's instructions, bickering with, or questioning of a Judge or Crew member, attempting to show up or publicly embarrass any Judge, Crew member, sponsor, spectator, other athlete or venue operator or owner/s, as determined by Last Man Standing, in its sole and absolute discretion, may result in penalty or disqualification of the athlete from the event and/or future Last Man Standing events. This includes derogatory comments from an athlete's coach, representative, teammate/s, supporters, guests or entourage.

WOD ANNOUNCEMENTS

Individual athletes and Teams will compete in multiple workouts for the duration of the stipulated event days. Some event WOD's are released prior to the start of the event to allow athletes to prepare. The organisers reserve the right to withhold certain information at their discretion to enhance the competitive nature of the event.

STANDINGS (TIE PROCESS)

The performance of Individual athletes and Teams will be ranked by their performance after the successful conclusion of each specified WOD. Based on an Individual athlete or Team's relative rank, they will be assigned points. These points will be used to rank the Individual athletes and Teams on a leader board which will be made available on the Last Man Standing website via www.lms360.net and via the Last Man Standing Fitness App.

Only the top ten ranked Individual athletes and Teams within their respective categories and divisions as per the leader board will advance to the final WOD of the competition unless otherwise stated by the Last Man Standing organisers. The Individual athletes and Teams who stand at the top the leader board after the conclusion of the final WOD at the end of the competition within their respective categories and divisions will earn the title of Last Man Standing Champion.

Ties will be dealt with as follows: The Team and/or Individual athlete who has acquired the highest place finishes between the parties overall, taking into consideration all completed WOD's for a specified event, shall be awarded the higher placing. In the event that two or more Team and/or Individual athletes obtain an equal number of wins, the result will be determined by the last competitive WOD that both Teams and/or Individual athletes have competed in.

In the case of a tie at the conclusion of the event between the top two positions, the organisers reserve the right to determine the winner through a WOD of their choosing. This is at the absolute and sole discretion of the organisers.

SCORING

Specific scoring formats will be provided when the event WOD's are announced prior to the event and during the on-site briefings. WOD's may have time penalties. Failure to complete a workout in the designated time may result in a specified penalty for any portion of the workout not completed. WOD's may have a minimum work requirement in terms of the amount of time, reps, weight or rounds to be completed to advance. Any such minimums will be announced as part of the event format.

Failure to complete the minimum work requirement may cause the Individual athlete or Team to acquire a penalty. Events may use chip timing (transponders) for official timing. For chip-timed events, the chip will be placed on the same area of the body for all athletes. The official time for each athlete will be recorded when the transponder reaches the finish mat or crosses the finish line.

If an Individual athlete or Team does not advance to the next WOD for any reason (DNF, injury, etc.), they will be ranked below all competitors or Teams who started that event and will be disqualified from the event.

APPEALS PROCESS

On-site appeals, event protests, or scoring questions should be filed by the Individual athlete or Team with the Head Judge immediately following the completion of the WOD. If the event Head Judge is unavailable, a Director or alternate Head Judge can begin the appeals process. Judgment calls made during a WOD are final and are not negotiable or subject to change, modification or appeal. In addition, athletes may not protest discrepancies related to the judging, scoring or performance of another Individual athlete or Team.

For all on-site appeals or scoring questions, the following process will be used:

1. Competing Individuals athletes or competing Team Captain only (no coaches or other athletes may be involved) will state the case and request an appeal with the Head Judge for the WOD in question.
2. If granted the right to appeal by the Head Judge, the Individual athlete or Team Captain will be granted the right to fill in the appeal form at the designated registration area.
3. The Head Judge, Judge/s involved, and the on-site Director will then communicate to complete the fact-finding process for the issue at hand.
4. No video, photo, cell phone media or any other media will constitute grounds for changing any decision.
5. Nothing in these procedures concerning event appeals, scoring discrepancies, event movement standards or range of motion requirements should be read as a limitation on Last Man Standing's right to run or operate any Last Man Standing supported, sanctioned or sponsored event as it sees fit in its sole and absolute discretion.

The Head Judge and Last Man Standing's decisions are final. This includes the right to remove or disqualify any Individual athlete or Team at Last Man Standing's sole and absolute discretion. All participants/Teams are limited to a maximum of two formal appeals.

INJURY/WITHDRAWALS POLICY

Any athlete (Individual or Team) who is unable to finish an event due to injury, or who requires medical attention following the completion of an event, must receive clearance from the medical staff and Head Judge before returning to the competition floor. The Head Judge will have the authority to disqualify the athlete from the event based on the severity of the injury, likelihood of further injury and/or other factors.

If an Individual or Team athlete misses their heat for a WOD due to injury or while undergoing medical treatment or assessment, the athlete will be given a 0 (zero) score or DNF (Did Not Finish) for the specific WOD/s missed. If any Team member is disqualified from the competition due to an injury, the Team may continue to participate if the team can potentially meet the minimum work requirements for a workout. If the team cannot meet the minimum work requirements for a WOD without a full roster, then the team may not step onto the competition floor and will be disqualified from the competition.

INCLEMENT WEATHER

Should the Last Man Standing organisers and its associated health, safety and security officers deem the weather as dangerous to the continuation of the event, the remaining WOD's for the day will be cancelled and appropriate measures will be followed and announced to the athletes.

PRIZES

Prizes will be awarded to all Individual and Team athletes who receive a podium finish at any of the Last Man Standing events within their selected category and division. Please note that all Masters subcategories will not be awarded the same prizes as the other categories or divisions but will be eligible for those regardless of their subcategory finish position. Any and all cash prizes are paid in ZAR (South African Rand). Announcements regarding the prize pool value will be announced prior to each event via the Last Man Standing website and social media platforms.

Event winners and other compensated athletes may be required to present valid identification to claim prizes. All prizes, including cash prizes, are subject to applicable taxation. Additional prizes may be presented by partners, sponsors or select vendors and all such prizes are also subject to applicable taxation. It is the athlete's sole responsibility to comply with paying all applicable taxes in connection with any prizes, including cash prizes. Prize money will only be released once drug test results have been confirmed should they be required.
